Sign-up pop-up

About Page

A screenshot of an "About" page. At the top, there's a navigation bar with "WebDev", "Home", "Topics", "About", and "Contact Us". Below the navigation is a sidebar with links to "HTML", "CSS", "JavaScript", and "Bootstrap" (which has a "New" badge). The main content area features a heading "First time using Bootstrap. It has basic design structure." followed by a paragraph about the site's purpose and a note about using unsplash images. To the right is a photo of a Starbucks cup next to a laptop screen displaying code. Below this is another photo of a Starbucks cup next to a laptop screen displaying code. The footer contains a "Thank You." message and a paragraph of placeholder text, followed by a copyright notice and a "Back to top" link.
